

The Steak House at Regent Hong Kong Named Among the World's 101 Best Steak Restaurants for the Second Year, Now in 80th Place

12 May 2025 (Hong Kong SAR) – The Steak House at Regent Hong Kong is honored to be featured in the World's 101 Best Steak Restaurants for the second consecutive year, achieving an impressive 80th ranking.

This prestigious accolade is a testament to The Steak House's commitment to excellence in culinary experiences. Diners can relish curated selections of prime meats sourced from pristine farms around the world, perfectly grilled on the original charcoal grill. The menu features imaginative starters, reinvented classics, an elaborate salad bar, and decadent desserts, all contributing to an indulgent dining experience.

Head Chef Amine Errkhis expressed, "It is an incredible honor to receive this recognition again. The team has gone to great lengths to source the best beef globally, offering a unique variety that sets us apart from other steak houses. This achievement reflects our dedication to quality and our passion for delivering the finest to our guests."

Each carefully curated cut is seared to perfection, enhanced by a unique seasoning applied during the final grilling. Chefs use beef tallow instead of oil, promoting a more sustainable cooking method. Guests can enjoy their meals with a choice of premium knives from the bespoke collection, allowing them to savor the rich flavors and textures of the world's finest beef.

The Steak House is also set to unveil unique special cuts in upcoming promotions. Championing sustainability, Chef Errkhis emphasizes a holistic approach to utilizing the entire animal. By showcasing diverse special cuts, the restaurant not only introduces diners to unique flavors but also underscores its commitment to reducing waste—reflecting the growing importance of environmentally conscious dining.

Diners can indulge in expertly prepared steaks sourced from the finest suppliers, complemented by an extensive selection of wines. The inviting atmosphere and attentive service create the perfect setting for both special occasions and casual dining. Celebrate this remarkable achievement and discover the exceptional flavors that have earned The Steak House its place among the world's best.
