

Celebrate National Day on October 1 at Regent Hong Kong
Where Spectacular Fireworks Views and Immersive Culinary Experiences Await

4 September 2025 (Hong Kong SAR) – Witness the magnificent National Day fireworks from the unparalleled vantage point of exquisite views on October 1. Nestled in the most coveted location along Victoria Harbour, Regent Hong Kong offers an exclusive sanctuary where cascading blooms of light transform the night sky into a canvas of wonder.

Immerse in this extraordinary spectacle in absolute luxury, creating treasured memories with loved ones. Guests reserving a harbourview room or suite will enjoy an exclusive bird's-eye view of the fireworks display, all within a serene personal haven where they can experience the best view.

Culinary Excellence Meets Spectacular Views

Indulge in the hotel's globally acclaimed gastronomy, promising a sensory journey like no other. Each distinctive restaurant offers bespoke culinary experiences paired with majestic vistas, culminating in an unforgettable evening panorama that ignites the senses with stunning close-up views of the harbour and fireworks. The private outdoor harbourfront viewing area, exclusively for guests of the Dining Destination, provides a unique intimacy with the festivities.

Renowned for its cinematic harbour views, The Lobby Lounge offers a mesmerizing experience during the fireworks display. Reserve a table for our 4-course set dinner menu at HK$1,688 + 10% service charge per person and make this immersive vantage point your front-row seat for the spectacle.

With accolades including two MICHELIN Stars and two Diamonds from the prestigious Black Pearl Guide, Lai Ching Heen guests can enjoy the fireworks alongside breathtaking views of Victoria Harbour while savouring a 6-course dinner menu that showcases the refined Cantonese cuisine of Executive Chef Lau

Yiu Fai and Head Chef Cheng Man Sang. This curated menu is priced at HK$3,288 + 10% service charge per adult and HK$1,588 + 10% service charge per child (ages 4-11).

Indulge in delightful culinary creations such as the exquisite Chilled Lobster paired with Yellow Fungus Jelly, Oscietra Caviar, and Golden Crab Claw. Savour the rich flavours of Double Boiled Fish Maw with Matsutake Mushroom and Dried Pearl Clam in a luxurious Supreme Soup. For dessert, treat yourself to a tempting Chia Seed Milk Pudding, complemented by Ginger Ice Cream, Mixed Nuts, and a delicate Da Hong Pao Tea Pastry.

Immerse in the aromas, flavours, and ambiance of local markets at Harbourside. Lavish buffets feature seasonal produce, showcasing authentic local tastes alongside Asian and Western cuisines. The elaborate Dinner Buffet, which includes up-close fireworks viewing, is priced at HK$1,988 + 10% service charge per adult (inclusive of a glass of Champagne) and HK$1,188 + 10% service charge per child (ages 4-11) (inclusive of a glass of juice / soft drink).

Dine at Nobu Hong Kong for a memorable celebration on October 1, featuring an immersive 7-course fireworks dinner menu priced at HK$1,988 + 10% service charge per adult and HK$1,688 + 10% service charge per child (ages 4-11). Savour the unique blend of Nobu-style Japanese cuisine with Peruvian influences. Enhance the culinary journey with world-class Nobu sake, exclusively brewed by the renowned Hokusetsu brewery, available at an additional charge.

For meat enthusiasts, the Michelin-recommended The Steak House, ranked No. 80 on the “World’s 101 Best Steak Restaurants List 2025,” features a tempting à la carte menu with a minimum spend of HK$1,880 on October 1, perfect for indulging in a selection of prime cuts. Meanwhile, Qura Bar invites guests to enjoy selected à la carte menu, with a minimum spend of HK$1,000 for standard tables and HK$1,200 for premium tables that offer stunning full views of the festivities.

Exclusive Private Dining Experiences

The exclusive private dining venues at Lai Ching Heen, Nobu Hong Kong and The Steak House offer customised culinary journeys with a sense of intimacy and discreet luxury. On 1 October evening, private dining patrons will be privy to an outdoor harbourfront terrace experience with unparalleled front-row views of the magnificent fireworks display.
