8 October 2025 (Hong Kong SAR): Regent Hong Kong, an iconic flagship property within IHG Hotels & Resorts' Luxury and Lifestyle portfolio, is honoured to be recognized in the Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards 2025 as one of the top 5 best hotels in Hong Kong in both the US and UK editions. These accolades underscore Regent Hong Kong's unwavering commitment to excellence in luxury hospitality.

The annual Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards celebrate the finest in travel, highlighting exceptional hotels and remarkable destinations, with a focus on unforgettable dining experiences, innovative design and immersive stays.

Michel Chertouh, Managing Director, stated, "We are honoured to receive recognition from the readers of Condé Nast Traveler in both the US and UK. This accolade showcases our team's commitment to delivering personalized experiences that resonate with travellers. We have strategically redefined luxury hospitality, creating a tranquil urban oasis along Victoria Harbour that seamlessly merges timeless elegance with modern sophistication for today's discerning guests."

He added, "As we witness a resurgence in travel to Hong Kong, we are dedicated to promoting the city as a premier destination. Our goal is to showcase the unique cultural experiences, stunning landscapes, and world-class hospitality that Hong Kong has to offer. By highlighting its diverse landscape, vibrant atmosphere, and rich culinary scene, we can attract a wide range of travellers eager to explore all that this remarkable city has to offer."

Perched on the edge of Victoria Harbour with breathtaking views of the city's majestic skyline, Regent Hong Kong exudes timeless allure and sophistication. This glamorous harbourfront landmark has been thoughtfully reimaged by the visionary Chi Wing Lo, whose understated interiors with meticulous design details and artisan craftsmanship beautifully juxtapose the spectacular harbour vistas. The stunning setting is brought to life by dedicated Regent Experience Agents, who curate immersive guest experiences and exquisite culinary journeys, staged against the cinematic backdrop.

Throughout the property, guests will discover Personal Havens – inviting spaces designed for reflection and curated encounters that reveal framed views of the harbour and skyline. Whether lounging on a windowfront daybed with a cup of tea or soaking in the harbour views from the Oasis Bathroom, a world of quiet luxury and sophistication awaits.

The luxurious urban retreat is uniquely situated on the edge of Victoria Harbour in Kowloon within easy access to the city's premier cultural attractions, including the West Kowloon Cultural District with M+ and the Hong Kong Palace Museum. With its close proximity to major concerts and sporting events at the new Kai Tak Sports Park, a stunning 50,000-seat integrated sports and entertainment landmark, that is just a short 15-minute MTR ride away, Regent Hong Kong is already a sought-after haven for top athletes and sports fans.

In August 2025, Regent Hong Kong proudly hosted football legend Cristiano Ronaldo and his Al-Nassr FC team who were in town for the Asian launch of the Saudi Super Cup. The hotel also served as the Official Hotel Partner of the inaugural World Football Summit in Asia, where international delegates mingled with football legends such as Rio Ferdinand, Javier Zanetti, Fabio Capello, Pierluigi Collina and Davor Šuker at NOBU Hong Kong, one of the hotel's celebrated restaurants. Additionally, Regent Hong Kong had the honour of hosting the acclaimed tennis champion Paula Badosa, during her recent visit to Asia's World City.

Regent Hong Kong is also renowned as an exceptional Dining Destination with an impressive collection of award-winning restaurants that blend local flavours with innovation and creativity – all while offering breathtaking views of Victoria Harbour. From the two-MICHELIN Star Lai Ching Heen, renowned as one of the world's finest Cantonese restaurants, and The Steak House, one of the 101 World's Best Steak Restaurants and MICHELIN Guide Hong Kong & Macau Selected Restaurants, to Nobu Hong Kong, showcasing the world acclaimed Japanese cuisine of chef Nobu Matsuhisa, Harbourside with its elaborate international buffets and the eclectic Qura Bar, which offers a sensory odyssey with rare spirits and hypnotic views, dining at Regent Hong Kong is a culinary experience that leaves lasting impressions.

Regent Hong Kong's recognition in the 2025 US and UK Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards follows a series of global honours for the hotel, which will mark two years since its official reopening on 8 November. Recent accolades include being awarded "Best Brand Hotel" at the 2025 Virtuoso Travel Week, as well as being named the #1 City Hotel in Asia, #1 City Hotel in Hong Kong for the second consecutive year and ranked #14 among the world's best hotels in the 2025 Travel + Leisure World's Best Awards readers' survey.

These achievements illustrate how Regent Hong Kong sets itself apart through excellence and innovation in service, food and beverage and thoughtful design – creating a rare harbourfront haven with a unique ambience of serene luxury that seamlessly balances the dynamic energy of the urban landscape. This "Beauty of Contrast" is a Regent design hallmark, drawing inspiration from the creative tension between serenity and stimulation to heighten the senses for an unforgettable guest experience.
